Section 1 - Interpretation

1.1. Definitions

1.1.1. In this document:

a) The Lassonde Engineering Society shall be referred to as “LES”;
b) The Strike Team shall refer to the ancillary cultural engagement body of LES with the responsibilities outlined in Section 2.1;
c) The Committee shall refer to the governing members of the Strike Team who hold formal roles and voting authority as described in Section 3.4;
d) Committee Members are individuals officially appointed to the Committee of Strike Team with constitutional responsibilities and decision-making powers;
e) Executives are volunteers who support Committee Members without constitutional authority or voting power;
f) The Hiring Committee shall refer to the group designated to lead Strike Team recruitment.

1.2. General

1.2.1. The Chair of the Strike Team shall serve as the initial authority on all interpretations of this Constitution.

1.2.2. Any disputes or ambiguities shall be resolved by the Committee, whose decision shall be final.

1.2.3. All meetings of the Strike Team shall be governed by Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised unless otherwise stated.

1.2.4. A term runs from June 1 to May 31 of the following year.

Section 2 - Objects

2.1. General

2.1.1. The Strike Team shall promote and uphold engineering culture at Lassonde.

2.1.2. The Strike Team shall engage the community through participation in LES events and unique initiatives.

2.2. Autonomy

2.2.1. The Strike Team shall support the goals of LES where they align with its own mandate and initiatives.

2.2.2. The Strike Team, in principle, maintains the autonomy to pursue independent initiatives that reflect the values of the student body.

2.2.3. LES may not impose priorities that conflict with the Strike Team's core objectives, nor may it direct the Strike Team to deprioritize its own programming in favour of LES interests unless mutually agreed upon.

Section 3 - Strike Team

3.1. General

3.1.1. Committee membership to the Strike Team shall be determined through a formal hiring process led by a designated Hiring Committee.

3.1.2. All Committee Members must be undergraduate engineering students at York University in good academic standing.

3.1.3. Committee membership shall not exceed three consecutive terms, regardless of position.

3.2. Hiring Committee

3.2.1. The Hiring Committee shall be composed of:

a) The Incoming Chair
b) The Incoming Vice-President External of LES
c) One outgoing Committee Member

3.2.2. If any Hiring Committee member is unavailable or has a conflict of interest, a substitute shall be appointed as follows:

a) Incoming Chair - a substitute shall be appointed by the outgoing Committee Member
b) Outgoing Committee Member - a substitute shall be appointed by the Incoming Chair
c) Incoming Vice-President External - a substitute shall be appointed by LES

If there are multiple outgoing Committee Members, they may decide among themselves who will serve. If they cannot reach a consensus, the Vice-President External shall make the final decision

3.2.3. In the event of a vacancy, the Hiring Committee shall initiate a replacement process within one month of the position being vacated.

3.2.4. Should a vacancy occur within one month of the academic exam period, the one-month timeline shall pause during the exam period and resume immediately after.

3.2.5. Interim arrangements may be made by the Chair to ensure the continuity of responsibilities until the position is filled.

3.3. Responsibilities of Committee Members

3.3.1. Committee Members of the Strike Team are expected to:

a) Attend meetings and designated events
b) Uphold and advance the objectives of the Strike Team
c) Collaborate with fellow Committee Members and Executives to fulfill assigned roles and initiatives
d) Wear and represent designated team apparel and branding during public-facing events

3.3.2. Committee Members are solely responsible for completing their assigned duties, regardless of whether they delegated tasks to Executives. Executives may assist but cannot be held accountable for a Committee Member's deliverables.

3.4. Powers of Committee Members

3.4.1. The Strike Team shall hold the power to develop and execute cultural initiatives.

3.4.2. The Committee may vote on the use of these powers, with each Committee Member holding one vote.

3.5. Committee Members

3.5.1. Chair

a) Acts as the official liaison with LES
b) Oversees overall operations and ensures task completion
c) Chairs meetings and facilitates team transitions

3.5.2. Brand Coordinator

a) Designs merchandise and promotional materials
b) Maintains brand consistency across all digital and print content

3.5.3. Outreach Coordinator

a) Coordinates spirit events on and off campus
b) Leads student engagement through feedback collection and market research

3.5.4. Logistics Coordinator

a) Manages the budgeting
b) Oversees merchandise distribution
c) Tracks events and their timelines

3.5.5. Advisor

a) Offers strategic input and guidance
b) Assists the Chair and steps in to facilitate their responsibilities when the Chair is unavailable or when oversight is needed.

3.6. Procedures of the Committee

3.6.1. Regular meetings must occur at least once monthly, exceptions may be permitted during official final exam seasons, or other extenuating circumstances that must be approved via a formal voting process.
3.6.2. The next meeting date is set at the conclusion of each session.
3.6.3. Emergency meetings require one week's notice unless all members consent to a shorter timeline.
3.6.4. The Chair shall issue meeting notices and determine agendas.
3.6.5. Quorum is achieved with four voting members.
3.6.6. In the event of a tie, the absent fifth member must cast a deciding vote. If unavailable, the motion shall be considered failed.
3.6.7. Attendance must be taken in every meeting.

Section 4 - Election Procedures

4.1. Chair Appointment

4.1.1. The Incoming Chair shall be selected by March 16 in accordance with LES Chair appointment procedures.

4.1.2. The Incoming Chair shall not assume the role until the conclusion of the current term.

4.1.3. Preference should be given to existing Strike Team members who have demonstrated satisfactory performance.

4.1.4. A Committee Member may hold the position of Chair for up to two consecutive terms.

4.2. Committee Member Application

4.2.1. All new and returning applicants must apply through the Hiring Committee to be considered for the upcoming term.

4.2.2. The Hiring Committee shall review applications and select Committee Members at their discretion, in alignment with the goals and values of the Strike Team.

4.2.3. All applicants may be required to submit a written application, participate in an interview, or both, as determined by the Hiring Committee.

4.2.4. At least one Committee position each term must be offered to a new applicant who has not previously served.

4.3. Objections Process

4.3.1. The Objections Process may be used to:

a) Recommend removal of a currently serving Committee Member due to serious concerns

4.3.2. Any Committee Member may submit an objection regarding another Member's ongoing participation. Objections must include clear rationale or evidence and are to be submitted in writing to both the Chair and the Advisor (or to the Vice-President External of LES if the objection involves either of those two).

4.3.3. A neutral third-party, such as a representative from LES, shall be appointed to oversee the review. The Member in question will be informed of the objections and given an opportunity to respond.

4.3.4. If the objections are substantiated by clear evidence of misconduct, neglect, or violation of responsibilities, the Member shall either be disqualified from running for a Committee position in the future or removed from their position, at the discretion of the third-party overseeing the review.

4.3.6. If the objections are determined to be unsubstantiated, retaliatory, or personal in nature, they will be dismissed.

4.3.8. Committee Members may appeal a decision pertaining to them within five business days. Appeals will be reviewed by an LES Executive who was not involved in the original review.

4.4. Transition

4.4.1. All outgoing Committee Members must submit a comprehensive handover document detailing:

a) Role responsibilities
b) Current initiatives and their status
c) Recommended action items for continuity

4.4.2. A formal transition meeting must occur between the outgoing and incoming Members before the beginning of the coming term.

Section 5 - Financial Responsibilities

5.1. General

5.1.1. The fiscal year mirrors the term year outlined in Section 1.2.4.

5.2. Budgets and Records

5.2.1. A proposed budget must be ratified by at least three out of five Committee Members.

5.2.2. The Logistics Coordinator shall maintain all financial records and submit reports.

5.2.3. In the event of Strike Team discontinuation, the remaining funds shall revert to LES.

Section 6 - Policies

6.1. General

6.1.1. Policies serve as operational guidelines that ensure consistency, continuity, and adherence to the objectives and traditions of the Strike Team.

6.1.2. Policies are binding and must be followed by all Committee Members in order to meet the goals set forth by the Committee.

6.1.3. Policies shall not contradict this Constitution but may expand upon its principles to provide specific direction for operations.

6.2. Policy Requirements

6.2.1. All policies must contain the following components:

a) Policy Name - A clear and concise title
b) Policy Purpose - A brief explanation of the reason for the policy and what it aims to accomplish
c) Scope & Applicability - Who the policy applies to and in what contexts
d) Procedures & Instructions - Step-by-step instructions for execution, including expectations for specific roles

6.2.2. Policy proposals must be submitted in writing to the Chair at least one week in advance of a scheduled meeting.

6.2.3. The Chair shall circulate a draft agenda including all policy proposals at least three days prior to the meeting.

6.2.4. Once passed, policies shall be digitally stored in a shared online repository accessible to all Committee Members.

6.3. Passing Policies

6.3.1. Any Committee Member may propose a new policy.

6.3.2. Proposals must follow the format outlined in Section 6.2.1.

6.3.3. A policy will be enacted if it receives at least three votes in quorum (as defined in 3.6.5) in favour during a formal Committee meeting.

6.3.4. Once approved, the policy becomes mandatory for all members and must be followed beginning the term it is enacted.

6.4. Amending or Repealing Policies

6.4.1. Any Committee Member may submit a proposal to amend or repeal a policy.

6.4.2. Amendments must follow the original policy format and clearly state the proposed changes.

6.4.3. Amendments and repeals must be approved by a vote of three votes in quorum (as defined in 3.6.5)

6.4.4. Once approved, the changes take immediate effect and must be followed by all Committee Members.

6.5. Policy Review Process

6.5.1. All standing policies must be reviewed at least once per term to ensure they remain relevant, accurate, and actionable.

6.5.2. The Chair and Advisor are responsible for initiating and leading this review process.

6.5.3. Any revisions or removals resulting from the review must be processed according to Section 6.4.

6.5.4. Policies found to be outdated, ineffective, or misaligned with current operations shall be amended or repealed accordingly.

6.6. Compliance with Policies

6.6.1. Adherence to all active policies is required from every Committee member.

6.6.2. If an objection against a Committee Member is reported for failing to adhere to policy rules, a formal review will be conducted by the Chair or, if the Chair is implicated, by the Advisor.

6.6.3. If necessary, the Committee may reconsider the member's continued role. In cases of significant or repeated non-compliance, the individual may be subject to the removal process outlined in Section 7.4 (Objections Process).

Section 7 - Ancillary Benefits

7.1. Shared Policies Framework

7.1.1. A joint policy list shall be maintained for any protocols or agreements mutually upheld by the LES and Strike Team (e.g., shared office hours, conduct guidelines, space reservations).

7.1.2. In cases of dispute, LES retains final authority over space-related policies, unless otherwise specified in a standing joint agreement.

Section 8 - Amendment Procedures

8.1. General

8.1.1. Committee Members may motion for a constitutional amendment if the motion receives at least three votes in quorum (as defined in 3.6.5) in favour during a formal Committee meeting.

8.1.2. Any proposed amendment shall follow the LES Constitutional amendment framework.
